At Holiday in Homer the lottery ticket basket donated by our Memorial Committee had 404 tickets purchased – the most of any basket. The woman who won it, shared that she was going to give the basket to her grandson, whose child is battling leukemia. This week, we heard that they won $120 and used those funds for the gas needed to transport our friend's great-grandson to his treatments!

Reality Check...It is time to mask-up again.

For the sake of all whom we love,
keep your mask on – even if you have been vaccinated.
