

WEEKDAY WORDS

Thursday, May 4, 2023

THIS SUNDAY

Faith Formation begins at 9:30 AM. Students in 1 – 3 grade will consider Jesus' call of his disciples. By way of wrapping up their study of the Hebrew scriptures, students in 4th – 7th grade will play a game of Jeopardy. Our adults will be led by Ellen Paterson. Ellen's Starting Point is a portion from My Grandmother's Hands.

It is Communion Sunday, and the Rev. Barb Wright will lead worship. Barb's sermon is based on Acts 7:54-60. Lori Schmidt and Linda Homer are the Deacon and Trustee of May. Our choir will sing an anthem by Mark Miller called "Home by Another Way". Join us for coffee hour, hosted by Carol Costell Corbin's family.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Monday Rev. Barb Wright will preside at the graveside service for Jane Edlund. We continue to hold the Edlund family in our prayers.
Tuesday Deacons meet at 6:30.

LAST SUNDAY WRAP-UP

We had a wonderful celebration as Reagan Anice McCall was baptized and we welcomed three new members to our family of faith: Rebecca Clark, Stefanie Fellows, and Linda Gmoser. See the pictures below!

PRAYER CONCERNS:

Joys: We give thanks for the changing seasons. We are also grateful for Rev. Barb Wright as she leads worship for two weeks and covers for any pastoral emergencies.

When you pray, remember the Edlund family, our newest members, those struggling with illnesses, those who are traveling.

Pray for the Burtsons. This weekend, they are in Schenectady, NY where they will hear Bishop Karen Oliveto and musician/composer Mark Miller (the composer of this week's anthem). In celebration of that church's 27th anniversary of welcoming all people, Bishop Oliveto and Mr. Miller have been invited to speak on Saturday and then lead worship on Sunday. PV is looking forward to hearing their perspectives on the state of the church-universal during these times.
