

WEEKDAY WORDS

Thursday, September 19, 2024

Congratulations to Claire & Acey Menard-Sieffert who become US citizens today!

THIS SUNDAY

At 9:30 AM our Faith Formation teaching teams will be on hand to lead PreK, K-2, and 3-5 classes on the theme “Noah.” During the same hour, our youth and adults will each meet for faith development.

During the 10:30 worship, Pastor Vicki will kick off a new sermon series based on Amy-Jill Levine’s book “Short Stories by Jesus”. See more information below. Samantha Penoyer and Stef Fellows are the Deacon and Trustee for the day, and Amanda McCaslin has the Children’s Time. Tracy Bertram and Terre Dennis will staff the nursery. Following worship, the Schmidt family will host our coffee hour. If you cannot attend in person, find our worship service live stream on Facebook, YouTube or at www.homercc.com

Following worship, our Outreach Team will meet in the board room.

ALL NEW PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

We are pleased to announce the production of a new Homer Congregational Pictorial Directory. We are working with the Isaf-Merkur studios for the project. This Sunday, you may sign your family up for photos to be taken:

Saturday, October 5 from 8 – 10 AM

Sunday, October 6 from 8 – 10 AM

Monday, October 7 from 5 – 7:45 PM

Your family photo will be included in the directory and you will be given the option to purchase a photo package.

SHORT STORIES BY JESUS

Jesus was a storyteller. Using everyday items from his day, he told stories about yeast, a tenacious widow, a father and son, and a mustard seed. In her book “Short Stories by Jesus”, Amy-Jill Levine advocates that for us to grasp the messages within each story, we must understand both Jesus’ background and the lives of those who first heard his stories.

GOT COATS?

Bring your gently used coats on October 6 or 13, as we support CAPCO’s coat giveaway.
