CHURCH OF THE WILD

Thousands of years before Jesus, ancient people in parts of Northern Europe celebrated the Spring Equinox ~ the day in Spring when light and dark are equal. They celebrated the lengthening days and the return of Light into the world with the return of the goddess Eoestre. She came accompanied by rabbits who helped her pass out eggs to all the children. Does Eoestre remind you of another big day we recognize in early April?

To celebrate this time of transition, the Tioughnioga Church of the Wild will meet this coming Sunday 22 March at the Lime Hollow Nature Center from 3-5pm. We gather under the open shelter by the Red Barn.

TCOTW is an opportunity to reconnect and celebrate our sacred connection to this beautiful and bountiful planet Earth that provides for all our needs. Regardless of the weather we always meet outside so dress appropriately! All ages are welcome to attend. Join us as we celebrate the divinity present in all Creation. If you have any questions, please see Gary McCaslin.

HOLY WEEK

Thursday April 2nd- Though we will not have a Maundy Thursday service held in our building there will be other opportunities in our community to worship on this day. See below for times and place in Cortland that we know of holding Maundy Thursday services this year.

6:30 PM- Service at Grace and Holy Spirit

7:00 PM- Service at United Presbyterian Church

Friday April 3rd- Good Friday Service, in the sanctuary at 6:30 PM. Rev. Stephanie will lead us in this time of worship. This service will also be live streamed.

Sunday April 5th- Easter!

At 7:00 AM we will be holding a short and simple sunrise service in the garden (so dress for whatever the weather turns out to be!) We will sing some songs, accompanied by guitar and hear some scripture readings as we celebrate this day.

At 10:30 AM we will gather in the sanctuary for our Easter Sunday service.

Livestream will be available this day

NOTE

Rachel Rood has moved to 16 Locust Ave., Cortland. Her new phone number is 607-250-7815. She has been in and out of hospital as of late but home now.

If you have something you would like listed in weekday words prayers please reach out to Stef, Anne, or Cindy

EASTER EGG PARTY

Thank you to all who made our Children's Faith Formation Easter Egg Party a success!
