CHURCH OF THE WILD

Due to some calendar mishaps, Tioughnioga Church of the Wild would have met last week, but the celebration of Easter was enough for one Sunday. So, we will gather this coming Sunday (April 12) from 3-5 pm at Lime Hollow Nature Center to recognize and celebrate the Spring Equinox, known to pre-Christian celebrants as Ostara. NOTE: From Easter Sunday to this coming Sunday, our Earth will have traveled over 23 million miles around the Sun. Hang on! See you soon!

KATHLEENS CORNER

The schedule for nursery volunteers for the remainder of the faith formation year is now out. Sign up on the table by the garden doors to help keep our nursery staffed from now until the summer.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS NEEDED!

There are still many open spots to host coffee hour in April and May, including this coming Sunday! Interested in hosting coffee hour but don't want to do it alone and not sure who to ask for help? Reach out to the office! We can connect you with others who are interested in hosting! Hosting coffee hour doesn't have to be fancy or complicated. It is all about providing a little opportunity for us to stay connected and fellowship with one another.
