TIOUGHNIOGA OF THE WILD (TCOTW)

The journey of our Sacred Home around the Sun is at the midpoint between the Summer Solstice ~ when daylight is longest and the Autumn Equinox ~ when light and dark are equal. For thousands of years, this midpoint has been a time to celebrate the first harvest of the planting season. The name of this day is "Lughnasadh" and has a loaf of bread as its symbol. Sunday afternoon ~ August 2nd ~ from 3-5pm we will gather at Lime Hollow ~ first to learn to pronounce Lughnasadh (😊) and then to explore the many ways this ancient festival is a time for reflection on the journey of our lives as we travel (at 67,000 miles per hour!) through space. Our lives and our journey together are sacred adventures. Everyone of all ages ~ are welcome. See Gary McCaslin for further information.

PRAYERS

As you pray consider…
Those who are grieving the loss of a loved one
Jack Carr is having heart issues and is traveling to the Cleveland Clinic for medical tests
Kathy Alvord, Jean Cadwallader, Gwen Hayne, and all experiencing health struggles
The Search Committee and the person being called to be our next settled Pastor
The kids, parents, and volunteers who come through out building this weekend to experience and support our Church Camp program
The teams preparing for PREP this summer

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who has helped with Church Camp preparations! We are so excited for the next few days of VBS but there is so much that happens before "the day of" and we couldn't make it all happen without a great team! Shout out to Anne, Bry, Buzz, Clay, Kate, Kathy, Lori, Pam, and Paula for giving of their time these past couple weeks to build, paint, make shirts, set up, and more!
